The six months stay was agreed to and each of the five companies joined in issuing secret circulars to its agents offering $40,000 reward for the apprehension of George W. Fraker inside of six months. The number of agents employed by the companies amounts to a small army, and includes every city, village and hamlet in the land. In addition the offer has been made to every reputable detective agency in the country,

Originally petitions for brick naving were presented from Twelfth to Eighteenth and from Eighteenth to Nincteenth. Then a petition for macadam from Twelfth to Nincteenth was clearly a majority petition, but as there was no ordinance providing for a single contrast from Twelfth to Nincteenth the board of public worse could not take cognizance of the macadam petition, and recommended the paving of the street, from Twelfth to Eighteenth, with brick. But the macadam petition contained the names of a number of brick signers who had withdrawn from the brick petition, and now the question as to whether there is a majority petition for brick from Twelfth to Eighteenth is to be determined by a canvass of the petition.

Ed Froisy, the employment agent and son of Madame Wright, for whose murder Harry Jones and William Clark were handed last summer, is again under arrest, this time on a charge of embezzling a watch left in his care by a laborer named F. F. Blair. Blair makes the charge that Froisy promised to get him work is he would pay him a dollar. Blair had no money, but left his watch with Froisy as security for the payment of the dollar. When he recured the money and paid it to Froisy the latter handed him a pawn ticket for the watch. Froisy had pawned the watch left in his care and he told Blair that he would not pay for its redemption. Blair at once swore out a warrant for his arrest, and the employment agent was soon arraigned before Justice Krueger, where his trial was set for February 18.
